We encourage you to invite women from your own circle, from whom others may learn, such as moms, aunts, sisters, neighbors and co-workers.

We all possess different talents/knowledge and a big part of the gathering is learning from others. We encourage you to share your special talents/knowledge with the group (i.e. musical abilities, dancing, nutrition, meditation, gardening, cooking, fantastic organizational skills, knowledge of books, massage, anything). Please list (on the back of this sheet) any talents/knowledge you would be willing to share at the gathering. Another big part of the gathering is circle time. Circles are safe places for women to discuss a wide range of topics. To enhance everyone's experience, please list a few topics you would be interested in discussing at a circle (on the back of this sheet).
